Friday 26th February sees a party of epic proportions with two of Adelaide's premier party crews teaming up for twice the craziness!

BLOCK PARTY

Block Party at Garage has taken mid week clubbing to a new level with their 'Club Kids PANIC!' show every Thursday. The night delivers a packed crowd of up-for-it clubbers week in and week out and has hosted some huge international and interstate acts as well as supporting local talent, including The Subjekts with a monthly residency. Come along as the Block Party crew team up with TechPhonics on a Friday night for this one off special event!

TECHPHONICS

TechPhonics, now in their third year, have maintained a serious devotion to pushing new sounds under the 'filthy house and dirty tech' banner. This focus on underground music aimed at the dance floor led to TechPhonics' presenting stages at Stereosonic in both 08 & 09. With previous TechPhonics acts as diverse as James Curd (Greenskeepers), Zombie Nation, Laurent Garnier, and DJ Misjah, you know you're in for one helluva party with an open-minded crew that love to get amongst it!

AUDIOJACK [UK]

With a musical presence and maturity beyond their experience Audiojack are arguably one of the most talented and exciting electronic music acts to develop in recent years.

Audiojack have proved a unique ability to produce credible underground music whilst appealing to a wide enough audience to surpass the sales and airplay of many of their peers.

But it isn't just their productions which are receiving such critical acclaim. Their ability to work as a team at the highest level is best seen in their live DJ performances, which to date has incorporated over 300 performances in more than 30 countries.

With their follow up album currently a work in progress, ongoing remixes and a lot more international touring set for the future, Audiojack continue to build their reputation as one of the most consistent and successful electronic music acts breaking ranks today.

Audiojack played a rocking set at TechPhonics in April 09 and we can't wait to see what the boys have in store for us this time around!
